BEAUTIFUL SEA NYMPHS.

Opening of the W. H. Rice shows will take place in West Hammond tomorrow, Saturday night. The shows will be located at State and Douglas and will exhibit on the west side every afternoon and evening of next week. W. H. Rice, owner of the organization, offered to give a percentage of the gross receipts of the engagement to the West Hammond Red Cross organization and to give space for the erection of Red Cross booths. The offers were accepted and a representative of the West Hammond chapter will be in charge of arrangements during next week.

According to announcement there will be about 16 shows and three riding devices. These will range from the simple fun ride on the merry-go-round to pulse quickening acts in the big animal circus. Rice's Submarine Girls is billed as the feature attraction and the Backman trained animal circus is mentioned as an unusually big show.

Mr. Rice gives his personal guarantee that there will not be an attraction on the grounds that women and children can not attend without fear of embarrassment.

It and will finish the work at once. James Shaw was called to Chicago yesterday on account of the serious illness of his sister.

HEGEWISCH
Miss Sis Powell has the scarlet fever. The Rebekah lodge elected new officers Wednesday evening. Miss Yelitto, noble grand; Mrs. Eulo Allman, vice noble grand; Mrs. Anna Peterson, secretary. The new officers will serve refreshments next meeting night.

EAST GARY
Mrs. Emma Scanlon left Sunday for a visit with friends and relatives in Pennsylvania. Miss Lynda Peterson spent the week-end with Chicago friends. Mrs. Shugg of Hammond, is visiting Mrs. Stone left for a visit in West Virginia, Thursday.

GRIFFITH
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Speaker of Kokomo, are spending a short time at the home of Mrs. Speaker's mother, Mrs. C. I. Bessin. Jacob Miller and Mrs. Minnie Gertz were married Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock at Schererville. A housing charivari was given them Wednesday evening.

SCHERERVILLE
The flag raising at the E. J. & E. depot which was to have occurred last evening, was postponed on account of the rain, until next week. The new bungalow being built by George Chey on Lafayette street, is nearly completed. Mr. Chew says he would build others if there was a sufficient demand for them either to rent or sell.

LOWELL
Tom McKay returned to his home in Chicago last evening after a visit here with his brother Lon and family. Tom is one of Uncle Sam's fighters and had to report at Springfield tomorrow, so could not prolong his visit.

Willard BATTERY SERVICE STATION

(Copyright registered, 1917)

A Welcome that Makes Good

Once you go to the Willard Service Station you'll go again, because you get something more than service.

You get a real welcome.

It may express itself in a bit of sound advice about the care of your battery or a book on battery health. But it's almost always something more than you asked for.

It's this that makes Willard service different.

If you haven't already received a Willard Service Card, stop in for one. It entitles you to free hydrometer testing twice every month—the first step in the prevention of battery trouble.

We have a rental battery for you if yours needs repairs.
